

Submitting a Petition on the White House Website:

petitions.whitehouse.gov Homepage/Navigation page

---

Clicks on “Create a Petition” button

Log In / Create an Account page (Option 1)

---

Uses left side of screen to log in typing in username and password

-----

Forgot Your Password? Page (Option 2)

---

Types in e-mail and clicks “E-mail new password”

-----

Create an Account Page (Option 3)

---

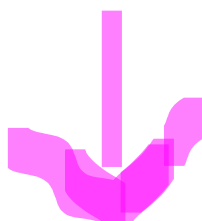

Types in first name, last name, e-mail, and security code and clicks on “Create Account”

Successfully logged in/ Petition Page

---

User sees big text box with subject line and is asked to type/introduce the petition and title it

Petition Page

---

User scrolls down the page after typing up petition, clicks on “Submit Petition” button

Buying an item from Amazon.com:

www.Amazon.com Main Homepage view

---

User clicks on search bar at top of page and types in “The Great Gatsby”

Suggestions made under user’s search displayed

---

Clicks on “The Great Gatsby” “in books” option below their search and hits enter

List of books are displayed in search results

---

Clicks on the book wanting to buy

Description of book, product reviews, buy/add to cart buttons display to the right

---

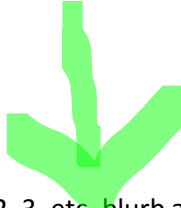

Clicks on “buy now” button

Searching for Onion Dip on Google:

Google Homepage with search bar

---

Types in “best onion dip” , google searches without them even having to press enter

Onion dip “display box” Ingredients: 1, 2, 3, etc. blurb appears (Option 1)

---

Clicks on picture of the dip they see on the top of the page

Displays onion dip image from google images tab with button selections

---

User clicks on “visit page” to get recipe

-----

Onion dip “display box” ingredient blurb appears (Option 2)

---

User scrolls down and clicks on a different link other than the suggestions from the top

Ingredients: 1,2,3, etc.

---

Clicks on main link title in the ingredients “display box” that appears right after the search

